IMPERIAL FEDERATION.

The Imperial Federation movement is gradually gaining ground in Britain and her colonies. A feature about the methods of the leaders of the movement which is most promising is the caution displayed in avoiding any clearly defined policy. The great aim of those who are leading the movement appears to be to stir the British peoples up to discuss this matter in all of its many phases. At the annual banquet of the Federation League in London a few days ago Sir Charles Tupper delivered a forcible speech in which he well pointed out the attitude of Canadians on this subject. He remarked: "In Canada there were many able and enthusiastic supporters of the policy, but he was compelled to admit that that was not the part of Her Majesty's dominions in which it was most required. Nowhere was there deeper-seated, more fervent loyalty to the Crown than in Canada—the inhabitants of which considered that they had under British institutions the greatest possible security for their liberties, laws and religion. Perhaps the company would permit him to offer a suggestion. Although in favor of ready-made schemes, he thought it would be impossible to keep up their agitation unless some practical project were devised for consideration; and therefore he held that the British Government, with the support of the opposition, should endeavor to sound the great heart of the Empire on the subject. It would not be wise that a cast-iron system should be devised in London and offered ready-made to the Colonies, who, under such circumstances, would naturally be inclined to oppose that in the framing of which they had not been consulted; but a convention representing every portion of the Empire might be called to consider the subject in all its length and breadth and details. He believed that when Imperial Federation was taken up as a practical question, with the view of adopting such measures as would give vitality to the principle, it would be possible to devise a fiscal policy which would mutually strengthen the several parts of the Empire, and add to the affection that now bound them all together."

We in Alberta should devote more attention to this momentous question than we are doing.

NEW CEMETERY.

The people of Calgary are almost a unit on the important question of getting a new cemetery; but they are not and never were a unit on the place selected. The committee appointed by the churches and town to select a new site, at least worked hard to accomplish the object entrusted to them, namely, making the best selection possible. The committee instead of spending their Christmas at home eating their "Christmas pie," as most of the citizens no doubt did, spent the greater part of the day tramping over snow crust and ice, looking at all the places supposed to be available. Five different places were visited. The unanimous opinion of the committee was that legal subdivision No. 13, 40 acres, and legal subdivision, No. 7 and 8, 80 acres, both in section 11, school lands, were the most suitable, indeed the only suitable places examined. The committee then decided to have a thorough test made of the two parcels by having holes dug at various points to a depth of six feet to see if there was rock or gravel or anything else that would make them unsuitable for cemetery purposes. This was done and the report in that respect was equally favorable to both places. A public meeting was then called to receive the report of the committee and act on it. At that meeting it was moved by W. F. Orr, seconded by Mr. Charles Watson, that legal subdivisions 7 and 8, 80 acres, be chosen as the site which an effort should be made to secure for a cemetery. It was moved in amendment by Mr. R. A. James and Mr. James Reilly that division 13, forty acres, be taken. The amendment was carried by a majority of one, and that only through some of the largest property owners of the town being away from home. The gentleman who moved the amendment, if on the committee at all, did not go to examine the grounds with the committee or indeed at all for cemetery purposes. Mr. McKay, one of the committee for the Presbyterian Church, published a letter in the HERALD at the time, pretty fully explaining the circumstances. In reference to what our contemporary says yesterday about getting the stock yards examined now, with a view to making a cemetery of part of it, we would inform our friend that the stock yard ground was examined at the same time as the others, and found wholly unsuitable. The writer offered at a committee meeting a few days ago to purchase 7 and 8, 80 acres, at the coming sale, and hand it over to the town at cost for a cemetery. The offer was declined. Two members of the committee now own it, and though they have no wish to sell for a graveyard, yet a graveyard can be got from them on most reasonable terms, in the best and the only really suitable place about town.

LUMBER DUTIES.

In closing our article on the 12th we showed in a few words as we could that by taking off the export duty on logs. The Mowat Government as owners of the pine could not be injured and the Mercier Government we might add would not be injuriously effected either, therefore it could not be any spite work or act of reprisal on the part of the Ottawa Government which had prompted them to make the proposals or consent to the proposal from the United States to have all the duty on logs and lumber removed on both sides of the line. The effect of so general a change whatever that effect may be will be more on the general lumber trade and the revenues of the country than on any of the local governments. One certain effect will be the much more rapid depletion of our pine forests, than under existing arrangements, while that in itself is not desirable, yet under the reposition now made, it may not be an unmixed evil. This principle may be pretty safely laid down as to who pays the duty. If a country has less of any article in its raw condition than it needs for home use and another country from which it will make up its deficiency, has more than it needs, then the purchasing country pays the duty and vice versa. For instance we do not pay the duty on refined sugar coming from the States, from the fact that the United States has to buy raw cane sugar very largely from abroad and Canada, of course, buys all hers abroad. Therefore it is a question of which country has the best facilities for importing and refining, and there is one of the points which might effect us prejudicially. If free trade were adopted in logs and lumber between Canada and the States, it turns out that our export of lumber is diverted from the St. Lawrence route to the sugar countries and our export cargoes thus reduced it may have this effect, raising the cost of freight so on raw sugars, that our refiners will not be able to hold their own against the American refiner, and thereby transfer the great advantage of having the sugar refined here, to the States. But on the lumber and log question pure and simple, the proposed change would no doubt largely stimulate the trade between the two countries, and would hasten the development of those parts of the lumber districts which can be made fit for farming, while the profit would not be all on one side, as when logs go out free and the States charge a heavy import duty on lumber. The result would at least be very largely, that the export of lumber in the logs would cease, and we would return to the state of things existing under Sir Alexander T. Galt's reciprocity treaty. The Americans would now as then, find it much better and cheaper to build mills and manufacture the lumber where it grows than to take the logs to their existing mills far away from the point of consumption. Canada would then reap all the advantages of having the lumber manufactured in Canada, bringing large sums of foreign capital into the country, giving employment to our own people at home, giving employment to our foundries, custom to the manufacturers of mill supplies of every kind, and business to our own merchants &c., &c. That this would be the case is assured from the former experience of a similar state of affairs as that now proposed. Our own lumber men would secure free admission to the American markets for our coarse lumber which the Americans want and which will not bear the freight to Europe or South America. If this change comes it will be the result of the policy we suggested to Sir John, and which he adopted. It does not take place, we think what took place at the last session of Parliament is sufficient evidence that Canada will not throw away the benefits of that policy without an equivalent in return.

MILITIA FOR THE NORTHWEST.

A resident of Calgary at present on a visit to the East has been interviewing the Minister of Militia and the Lieutenant-General commanding on the question of extending the militia system to the Northwest. The Minister of Militia, assured the gentleman in question that he was anxious to see militia corps organized in every large centre of the population in the Northwest and added that he had given the subject a great deal of thought. He announced, however, that it was impossible to extend the militia system to the Territories this year as the estimates of his department would not admit of it. This extension of the militia would mean a very considerable annual expenditure as a new military district with its arsenal, Deputy Adjutant-General, Brigadier Major and full brigade staff would be necessary besides the outfit for arms, the annual pay of the men etc., etc. He expressed his willingness to see what could be done next year in the way of securing estimates for this extension of the system, but added that the people of the Northwest will have to show their desire for such a measure by petitions.

Sir Fred Middleton expressed himself as quite enthusiastic over the proposal. He was particularly anxious to see mounted infantry corps organized in Alberta, and remarked "You can depend upon my doing anything in my power to assist in the organization of a mounted infantry at Calgary."

It is very evident from these interviews that there is a very good chance of our securing an extension of the militia system to the Territories if we only bestir ourselves. It would appear as a matter of fact, that all we require to do to secure this is to prove to the government that we are anxious to have militia. The members of the really splendid rifle associations of Edmonton, Battleford, Regina, Prince Albert, Macleod and Calgary and several other places have for some time been anxious to secure the organization of militia corps in their respective localities. The Northwest riflemen are debarred from competing in the great national matches of the Dominion Rifle association at Ottawa and cannot consequently compete for the honor of representing Canada on the Wimbledon team, because they are not militiamen. If militia corps were established in the Northwest the riflemen would be amongst the first to join, and would thus be qualified to compete for their share of the thousands of dollars of public money annually shot for at Ottawa. Militia corps would also furnish healthful and manly recreation for our young men while fostering the noblest of all human attributes, patriotism. It is scarcely necessary to speak of the greater public security which would be after all the principal result of a local militia force. Such a body is well worth securing and we should at once take the matter up in earnest. Whatever we may have to do before we succeed we shall know from the start that we have the best wishes of those in authority and consequently every hope of success ultimately.

STOCK.

THOROUGHBRED CATTLE.

Important shipment of Aberdeen Angus Cattle to Alberta.

On Friday last there were despatched from Glasgow per Allan line steamship "Sarmatian" for Quebec, no fewer than 92 heifers and 6 bulls of the Aberdeen Angus breed. The animals have been selected on behalf of Mr. Walter F. C. Gordon-Cumming, Altyre, Forres, their destination being the Quorn Ranch, Calgary, Alberta.

From Mr. James Collie, Tomfarclas, Ballindalloch, have been acquired one two-year-old and two yearling heifers—Rose 4th of Tomfarclas 12174, Countess 4th of Tomfarclas 13445, and Rose 5th of Tomfarclas 12447. Two of the heifers have for sire Erica bulls, Rose 4th being after the double Erica Edile (a son of Young Viscount 736 and Edith of Ballindalloch 2973), and Countess 4th, after Emir of Ballindalloch 3392. A yearling and a two-year-old go from Mr. Leslie's herd at Braco, Keith. They are Delia of Braco 13670 and Lady Nere 3rd 12576, the former by Edile, and the latter by Sir Michael 3249, the highly commended bull at the Highland Society's show at Inverness in 1898. Mr. William Craig, Gairdwell, Gairdwell, furnished a couple of two-year-olds in Corbie of Inverdiddich 13145, of the Bognie Corbies, bred by Mr. Stuart of Inverdiddich, by the Drum Lucy bull Luck 6195; and Lizette of Gairdwell 12291, bred by Mr. Craig, and by the Eric-Pride sire Proud Viceroy 3186. The two-year-old Croquet 3rd 12872, the yearlings, Mignonette 2nd 14147 and Croquet 4th 14145, are purchased from Mr. Alex. Robertson, Burnside, Ballindalloch. Croquet 3rd and Croquet 4th are descended from Montblanc and Calwylio stock. Croquet 3rd is by Fitz Elcho 2752, a double Erica, the other two by Sweep of Burnside 5744, of the Fred's Darling family.

Mr. Forbes, Woodhead, Forres, contributes Bella 2nd of Lynmore 12366, Argy 5th of Lynmore, 12394, Annie 5th of Lynmore vol. xiv, (dam Aldie 5th 5947), Aldie 11th, vol. xiv, Ally, vol. xiv, (dam Alice 7th of Lynmore 8511), and Roy's Wife of Woodhead, vol. xiv, (dam Annie 2nd of Lynmore 6053). The sires of this lot comprise Merryman 4950 (a son of the champion bull Justice 1463), Allegro 2450 (bred at Gaywood, Banff, and by Young Hero 1837), and Posing Bloom 5124, bred by Mr. Forbes of Lynmore. From the herd at Tullochallum, Dufftown, belonging to Mr. George Gordon, there are sent six yearling heifers, viz.: Elf Queen 13676, Flower Girl of Tullochallum 13678, Aurelia of Tullochallum 13675, Lady Eric 13678, Madame Rose 13679, and Queen Bess of Tullochallum 13680. Three of the heifers belong to the Drum Lucy family, two spring from stock long bred on farm, and one from Carron Mains stock. The six animals have for sire the Erica bull Egort 1443. Two two-year-olds and two yearling heifers are acquired from Mr. John Hunter, Dipple, Forres. The two-year-olds are Vineberry 12560 and Velvet Brown 13830, the yearlings being Lulu Brown 13828 and Vineblue 13831. They spring from Westerton and Ballindalloch stock, the four animals being after Albinus 4479 a double Pride of Aberdeen.

There are purchased 12 heifers from Mr. Mackenzie, Earnside, Forres, 5 two-year-olds and seven yearlings. The animals acquired are—Mossie of Earnside 12654, Flush of Earnside 12644, Maybud of Earnside 12651, Jono of Earnside 12656, Model of Earnside 12658, Myrtle of Earnside 13928, Merry Queen 13936, Beauty's Branch 13928, Favourite Flower 13930, Velvet of Earnside 13941, Mootie 2nd of Earnside 13938, and Melona 13935. They include representative of families bred in the old herds of Westerton, Muibien, and Burnside, as also of strains long established at Earnside. A like number of animals are taken from the herd at Kirkton, Buncle, owned by Mr. John Grant, the number being equally divided between two-year-olds and yearlings. The two-year-old heifers are Darling of Kirkton 12201, Mally of Kirkton 12206, Mayflower of Kirkton 12208, Dorcas of Kirkton 12202, Jet of Kirkton 12203, and Lucy of Kirkton 12204; while the yearlings are Dolly of Kirkton 13481, Dove of Kirkton 13482, Jewel of Kirkton 13483, Maiden of Kirkton 13484, Minerva of Kirkton 13486, and Meta of Kirkton 13485. The whole twelve animals are after the Erica sire Eglington 2712, a son of Justice 1462 and of Eveline 3272.

From Sir W. G. Gordon-Cumming's herd at Altyre, a select lot of seven yearlings are taken. They are Flora of Altyre 15th 13689, Mayflower of Altyre 12th 12590, Mayflower of Altyre 13th 13691, Oakleaf 10th 13692, Pride of Fyndhorn 10th 13693, Queen Mary of Altyre 10th 13694, and Rose of Altyre 6th 13695. The families represented include the Prides of Aberdeen, Muibien Mayflowers, and Westerton Roses, and some of those now parted with are of the same strain of blood as the Altyre Smithfield champions of 1881.

Four heifers are bought from Mr. John Grant Glenconglass, viz.: Missie 3rd of Glenconglass 13735, Mina of Glenconglass, Vol. XIV, (dam Myrie of Glenconglass 9956); Nashie, Vol. XIV, (dam Marj-Mallow 10536); and Betsy 4th of Glenconglass, Vol. XIV. The sire in each case is Star of Drumlin 5045 (bred by Mr. Skinner, Drumlin, Ballindalloch), a son of the Pride bull Knight of the legion 1494. Mr. John Macpherson, Muibien, Keith, parts with nine heifers, viz.: Rachel of Achlochach 12663, Robina of Achlochach 12664, Lilly of Muibien, Emily of Muibien, Rosebell, Bridget of Muibien, Marion of Muibien, Juliet of Muibien, and Blossom of Muibien, the latter seven all entered for Vol. XIV. Marquis of Braco 5544, of the late Mr. Paterson's Muibien Mayflower family, and a son of Edile 2709, already mentioned, is sire of the nine heifers. Four heifers are purchased from Mr. John Macdonald, Tormore, Advie, viz.: Topsy of Tormore 13996, Cowslip of Tormore 13994, Camelia of Tormore 13993, and Maid of slack 13995, descended from stock bred at Tormore, some of which are of Drumlin descent.

From the herd at Blairfindy, Glenlivet, belonging to Mr. John A. Grant, are sent six heifers—Nellie Rose 12405, Nellie Lee 12404, Christy 2nd of Blairfindy,

Vol. XIV.; Lily Rose, Vol. XIV.; Adela of Blairfindy, Vol. XIV.; and Miriam of Blairfindy, Vol. XIV., four of which have for sire Salesman 5707, of the Drumlin Luys, and a son of the Vine of Tillyfour bull Prince Royal of Kinlochry 3181. Mr. Alexander Sheed, Upper Coull, Ballindalloch, contributes the yearling heifer, Nancy 4th of Coull 14247 and Mavis 4th of Coull 14246; Mr. John Cammings, Knocknashal, Ballindalloch, the yearling heifer, Nancy 3rd 13506, and Zoro 13507, while Mr. Cowie, Valtale, Dufftown, also sends two yearlings in Alena 3rd 13456 and Sassy 3rd of Pitglass 13459. The Upper Coull and Knocknashal heifers are after Symbiose 5743, which traces through the Kinlochry Blue Bulls to Old Grannie 1. Of Mr. Cowie's two animals Alena 3rd has for sire Prince of Blairmore 5656, son and grandson of two famous Highland Society first prize winners, Prince of the Realm 1695 and Sir Maurice 1319. The heifer calf, Vita 2nd, Vol. XIV, (out of Vita 10527, and by the Erica bull Elliott 3703), is sent by Mr. Wm. Smith, Lagmore, Ballindalloch; the yearling heifer Maggie of Dell, Vol. XIV, (out of Maiden of Dell 9356, and by the Pride bull Prince of Aberdeen 6332), by Mr. Alexander Stuart, Dell, Ballindalloch; and Rosanna 3rd of Bogarrow, Vol. XIV, (out of Rosanna of Bogarrow 4870, and by director 5295, a son of Knight of the Legion already mentioned), by Mr. Robert G. Farquharson, Bogarrow, Ballindalloch.

Of the bulls, Kinloss 6372 and Joker of Ballindalloch 6843 have been acquired from Sir George Macpherson Grant, Bart. of Ballindalloch. Kinloss has for dam the Pride of Aberdeen cow, Kindness of Ballindalloch 1412, and for sire Erroll 2723, a double Erica (by Young Viscount 736, and out of Ella 3794). Joker is after the Rose of Westerton sire Roslyn 5693 (by Illad 2343, and out of Rosebloom 5617), and has for dam the Jilt cow, Jocosa 5610. From the herd of Mr. Clement Stephenson, Newcastle-on-Tyne, are sent Barraford 6561, having for dam Blooming Heather 2nd 3572 of the Rothiemay Heather Blooms; and Royal Souter 7166, out of Ruth of Wellhouse 5427, of the Baths of Tillyfour, both bulls having for sire Souter Johnny 1615, winner of the first prize at the show of the Royal Agricultural Society of England at York in 1883. Mr. Macpherson, Muibien, in addition to the nine heifers already noticed, sends the bull Donald Dia of Muibien, which is out of the Drumlin Lucy cow, Daisy 6th of Drumlin 10506, and by Clinker of Drum-muir 5931 of the Bognie Corbie family, and a son of the Pride sire Game-Cock 2774, bred at Altyre.

Mr. Gordon-Cumming has, it will be seen, secured animals belonging to almost every fashionable strain of the breed, while, in their selection, individual merit has not been overlooked. The selections were made by Mr. Walker, Altyre, and Mr. James Smith, Muilochard, Ballindalloch. The arrangements as to transit and shipping were made by Mr. Walker. It will be observed that all the animals are entered in the Herd Book.—Banffshire Journal.

Cattle Consignment.

Another train load of cattle from Ontario for the Quorn Ranch Friday morning. The train consisted of 16 cars averaging about 33 head of young cattle to each car, or a little over 500 animals. We believe this completes the contract for 2,000 head made by Mr. McGregor with the above ranch company. The HERALD had occasion to refer to this enterprise several times, and to correct an error made by some Eastern papers by saying the cattle would be sent east in the fall. It certainly is a novel feature in cattle fattening. In the great cattle States of the Union they used to buy young cattle and older cattle to lean, and send them to York State and New England to be fed in Distillery's. This venture, which is succeeding admirably and no doubt will terminate in success, shows the vastly superior quality of our native grass to that of the States far to the south of us.

Some Very Valuable Cattle for the Quorn Ranch and Qu'Appelle.

QUEBEC, 23.—There are now in cattle quarantine at Point Lévis a number of very valuable imported cattle destined for the Northwest. Amongst them are six bulls and ninety one cows and heifers of noted Polled Angus breed, intended for the Quorn Ranch, near Calgary; also one bull and nineteen cows and heifers for John McKay, Qu'Appelle.

GENERAL.

That Petition.

Since the contributed article in the HERALD of yesterday, was published, we have been shown the petition referred to. We do not know ourselves how many residents there are in the district known as "Glenmore" or whatever is included in what it is proposed to put in the fire and statute labor district, but we have been told on apparently good authority that there are about 60 heads of families, or what is legally in this case called "residents." The petition had on it 52 names, all said to be names of said residents. Many of them we know to be substantial men. This on the face of it does not look like individual kicking. The erection of that territory into a "fire district" is not held to be objectionable, though many think it not necessary, considering the settled up character of the place and the fact that it is so nearly surrounded with water, nor do the petitioners object to some modern system of road work. The views expressed to us are that some general system which would be suitable to the whole territories should be adopted by the Legislative Assembly; a fund created, from which necessary work could be paid for, the work being done under a duly appointed road master or commissioner having authority over defined districts. It is claimed by the opponents of the statute labor district arrangement, that it is an old and played-out system, and should not be introduced into these great Territories. We will not now pronounce judgment in the case, but only say it is one well worth getting the opinions of the most practical men in the country upon.

Another Accident.

(From Monday's Daily.)

There seems to be an epidemic of accidents in Calgary just now. Yesterday a young man named T. Flam, with his wife and a lady friend, narrowly escaped with their lives, through the antics of one of A. McNaughton's lively horses. They were driving along a rough piece of road near Frazer's place on the other side of the Bow river, when the horse took a sudden fright from another one passing in the opposite direction, and, suddenly plunging from one side of the road to the other, overturned the buggy, spilling the three occupants roughly upon the road. Mr. Flam was driving with a loose rein at the time and the horse was unmanageable so sudden and unexpected that the whole accident occurred before he could regain control of the fractious creature. Mrs. Flam was badly cut over the left eye and was otherwise scratched and bruised about the face and body. She was conveyed to her home by another car which happened to come up at the time. Mr. Flam also received a painful gash over the left eye, and was hurt about the spine. The young lady friend escaped unhurt, but was badly shaken up. The wonder is that the whole party were not killed, or, at all events, escaped with as light injuries as they did. As to the accident, it will be an expensive one, as it will incapacitate Flam from working for some weeks. He only recently came from Port Arthur to Calgary to work at stone-cutting on the new R. C. Cathedral. The rig is damaged to the extent of about $25, and the horse is suffering from dangerous escapee by injuries received in his right hind foot.

BUTLER ON CANADA.

He Tells The Main People Something About This Country.

Gen. Benj. F. Butler recently delivered an address at Colby University, Waterville, Me., on "The Annexation of Canada." These are some of the things he said:

We hear men, some of whom hold positions which statement should fill, speaking of the annexation of Canada to this country with the same levity as one in the ordinary walks of life might speak of the joining of a tail to a dog—a little difficult to do, but of itself a very small matter. But how should this be spoken of if the tail might happen to be larger than the dog? In my belief, this frivolous talk, belittling alike to the Canadian and insulting to the might and power of Great Britain, is one of the chief obstacles to what every patriot in the United States, and every Englishman in Canada, if not in the Empire, must, if the question is fully understood, greatly desire—the union of these two great English-speaking peoples on this continent, which must happen if democracy is not to be a failure, so that this continent shall be the home and exemplar of English freedom and English language, as modified and improved by American genius and enterprise.

The first great fact to be taken into consideration when we speak so lightly of the annexation of Canada is her immense area, which includes 40 per cent. of all the possessions of Great Britain, wherever situated on the globe. There is room for three British Indian possessions within the Dominion of Canada, and enough territory left over out of which the cres of Great Britain might be five times taken. Modern empires are pigmies to it, for there is room in Canada to carve out nine German Empires. The Dominion of Canada holds within its boundaries an area of 3,470,392 square miles, while the United States (not including Alaska, of which the limits are unknown) has an area of 2,970,000 square miles, or rising 500,000 square miles less than Canada. Canada and her surrounding contain quite half of all the fresh water of the globe. Please bear this great fact in mind, for I repeat that it is a foundation of the resources to make one of the greatest nations on the earth.

The general idea, when thinking of Canada, is that her high latitudes are Arctic cold. The immense body of water known as Hudson's Bay, 1,000 miles long and 600 miles wide, thrust down into the center of Canada, and which in ordinary comprehension, being connected with the Arctic ocean, is deemed to be wholly frozen over for a great part of the year, averages three or four degrees higher temperature than the water on the south-western shores of Lake Superior. And we must remember that on the south-western shores of Lake Superior lie Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota of our great North-west. Do we claim any States more fruitful, or any part of the United States which has made greater progress than the great North-west, to which the star of the empire takes its way?

Canada has quite one-quarter more land fitted for wheat cultivation than has the whole of the United States. It may be safely said, that, leaving out the worn-out wheat lands of the United States, Canada has twice the extent of unworn-out lands, which produce an average of more than twice the number of bushels to the acre than are produced by the average lands of the United States, and on some lands wheat has been raised in the largest producing quantities for twenty years in succession without a fertilizer.—Western Traveller.

The Late Mr. McNamara.

(From Saturday's Herald.)

Mr. Patrick McNamara, whose death under such painful circumstances is announced in our columns to-day, was born at Kilrush, County of Clare, Ireland, in the year 1844. When the subject of our notice was about six months old his father, who was a contractor, died. There were four children in the family, of which Patrick was the youngest. Two sisters came to Canada, both of whom are married, one residing at Bothwell and the other at Pembroke, Ont., shortly after the mother and two sons came to Canada. The mother died at Eganville, Ont. about 18 months ago. Five years ago on the 8th of last December Patrick came to Calgary, his brother John came here two years later. Since beginning business with the very commencement of the town, in the shoe business, he continued in it till the time of his death, he was with out an enemy and respected by all as an upright business man. From the time our account closed about the accident yesterday there was not much change noticeable to any but his physician, who all the time had fears for his recovery. He was quite conscious all the time, and conversed with his friends till about one o'clock this morning, when all pain left him and he began to grow weaker. Dr. Lindsay was at once sent for, but the fatal hour had arrived, about two o'clock he breathed his last, being sensible till within fifteen minutes of his death. His spiritual adviser the Venerable Father Andre was very attentive from first to last, he administered the sinking man the sacred rights of his church he died as he had lived a worthy member of the Roman Catholic Communion. The funeral notice may be seen in another column.

Gone to Rest.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The funeral of Mr. Patrick McNamara took place yesterday. At 3 p. m. a large number of friends collected at his late residence to pay their tribute of respect. At about 3:30 p. m. thirty-five carriages and a large number of people on foot formed in funeral procession from the house to St. Mary's Church. The pall bearers were J. W. Costello, W. N. Costello, Wm. Scollen, Andrew Kennedy, Felix McHugh and Wm. Carroll. The mourners were John McNamara, Mrs. John McNamara and their children. On arriving at the Church the solemn chanting for the dead was rendered by the Rev. Father Andre, Dr. Rouleau and Mr. Miquelon, jr. Within the church solemn prayers were chanted and the Rev. Father Andre delivered an appropriate sermon for the occasion. After the services were through in the church, the procession reformed to the cemetery, where the last funeral services for the dead were dispensed, and so ended suddenly the earthly career of a good citizen, who by hard work and honest speculation had acquired a competence. He will be much missed by his church and his brother's family who were very much attached to their bachelor uncle.

Adelaide Phillips, the singer, now dead, was a very poor girl, and (so says Sarah Jewett) the actress.

SENTENCE PRONOUNCED.

William Fisk Sentenced to 14 Years in the Penitentiary.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The long protracted Fisk trial closed at a few minutes past two o'clock today. The prisoner, Wm. Fisk, who was found guilty in the High Court of Justice on Saturday, the 13th instant of manslaughter, was brought up to day for sentence. There was nothing special in his appearance or movements. He did not attempt to say anything. The learned Judge did not say much, but told the prisoner that he had fully made up his mind to sentence him for life. But when he saw the letters written by members of parliament and other influential persons, who had known him as a harmless boy and good dispositioned young man, who had made representations to the court as to his previous good character, combined with the petition so largely signed by the most respectable people of Calgary, his services to his country and more than all his aged and sorrowing mother, he fully weighed these things and would, therefore, sentence him (Fisk) to 14 years at hard labor. The prisoner's brother and his lawyer were allowed to speak with him a few minutes and he was then taken back by the military guard to the N.W.M.P. cells at the fort.

Joined the Happy Benedicts.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

One of those social events which are by no means uncommon in Calgary, but which always awaken interest in the minds of the bachelors (of course the Young ladies are too bashful to think of these things) took place last evening at the residence of Mr. J. G. Vanwart, Calgary East. It will be seen by the notice in another column that our highly esteemed townsman and ex-Councillor Mr. James C. Linton was married to Miss Edith M. Van Wart. The ceremony was semi-private. Only a few persons, chiefly relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. The marriage took place about 9:30 Rev. J. J. Leach, Ph. B. was the officiating clergyman, Mrs. Leach also being present. There were also present the Rev. J. C. Herdman, pastor of Knox Church, and Mrs. Herdman, and the Rev. H. E. Wise, pastor of the Baptist congregation. The usual description of the wedding presents "numerous and costly" went do this time, they were also rare and beautiful. Refreshments were provided for the occasion and a most pleasant evening was spent. The happy couple are today receiving the congratulations of their numerous friends, which means every one who has the pleasure of their acquaintance. No more popular young man has ever left the ranks of bachelorhood in Calgary than J. C. Linton. We will make a councillor if not mayor of you next year friend Linton. Mr. Winslow Warden was groomsmen and Miss Mabel Van Wart bride-maid.

Big Wheat.

We have had placed on our counter a sample of wheat in the stalk headed out, grown by Messrs. Brenner & Boag, of Clover Bar close to Edmonton. The wheat measures 46 inches and is a healthy looking specimen. The parties have 50 acres of this wheat in one field. At present there is every prospect of this wheat turning out a big crop. This sample is proof positive of the statement quoted from the Bulletin in another column that the crops about Edmonton will be good this year.

Sir John's Immigrants.

The immigrants that Sir John Lister Kaye proposes to settle on lands adjoining his ten farms on the Canadian Pacific Railway will be of no ordinary class. Each individual settler before being allowed to join the colony will agree to furnish $1,000 of his own money to be invested for him, and $2,000 will be advanced to him by the company. Each settler will receive a free homestead from the Dominion Government, and at the same time contract to purchase an additional 160 acres from the Company, the payment for which will be extended over thirty-two years. The Company's operations on these proposed farms will begin in March 1890.

THE MOUNTED POLICE.

Chat With Commissioner Herchmer—In Capital Condition.

Commissioner Herchmer, of the Northwest Mounted Police, was in Winnipeg on Monday, says the Sun. He came down for the purpose of having a conference with Commissioner H. H. Smith and Capt. G. H. Young, Inspector of Customs. The intention is to establish a patrol along the international boundary, and to have the police perform the duty as inland revenue officers. The conference was to arrange the best points for having the officers located and within the past day or two the police have seized a contractors' outfit which was crossing the line without paying duty, and some cattle also have been seized. Mr. Herchmer says the police are doing good work at Grand Rapids preventing whiskey from being sent north. The force was never in better condition. Over one hundred recruits have recently been added. They were sent up by Capt. W. C. B. Grahame, who is the only recruiting agent in the Dominion now. Every man the Capt. has sent has proved a good selection. The commissioner says that nearly all the horses bought this year were raised in the country, and were excellent animals. Next year all the horses will be purchased in the country and will be native-born. Speaking of the brass bands in connection with the force the commissioner said they were making fine progress. The one connected with E division, at Calgary, had been sent up to Banff, where it would play during the summer. The string band would furnish music for dancing, and thus make the popular resort more attractive than ever. The headquarters band, located at Regina, which has recently been provided with the finest outfit, will be sent up to Banff in August and will give some fine music there. At the request of Lieut. Governor Schultz the commissioner will not go west till to-morrow. (Tuesday.)

The Ups and Downs of Life.
 When life looks gloomy and my mental sky
 Is overcast by some confounded blunder,
 All things are a wry, well 'tis then that I Get mad as thunder!
 When on the other hand I'm feeling well,
 And great good luck my efforts seem to crown,
 Then upwards steadily my drooping spirits swell—
 I own the town!
 'Tis so with most; when we are free from strife,
 And health is keeping pace with fortune's wheel,
 We calmly reason o'er the ills of life
 We do not feel.
 —PAUL RILEY.

Our Air Country.
 Canada with all its scenery, grand magnificent, terrible and interesting, should have a Mr. Cook, who would organize tours over our country, which embrace nearly all the beauties of nature. Says the Montreal Gazette:
 European tours are largely patronized, why not Canadian? What is there lacking in interest in Canada not to deserve the same attention of tourists? Whatever tourists go over Canada do so in a private capacity and with no help or instructions save some very imperfect guide books.
 The Canadian Pacific lines runs through some of the most magnificent scenery in Canada, and, in fact, in the world. Why can there not be some official, personally conducted tours arranged for visitors, tourists and holiday makers? The question is worthy of consideration.

Returned to Calgary.
 Amongst the guests registered at the Royal hotel to day is Charles Elliott Esq.
 F. S. I., of Devonshire, England. Most of our business readers will remember that Mr. Elliott came out here early last year and purchased the Cochrane Horse Ranch, lease, and a large part of the horses. After putting things in good shape here he returned to England, and from there sent out some of the finest horse flesh that ever came to Canada.
 Under the care of Mr. Goddard we understand the horse ranch now known as the "Bow River Horse Ranch" has had a successful year. Several weeks ago now, Mr. Elliott left England for a long trip and thorough examination of Canadian agricultural districts, stopping in Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba. We are glad to hear from so practical a man as Mr. Elliott that the crops in Manitoba will not be the complete failure at once feared, and we are glad to be able to show Mr. Elliott Alberta crops equal to those of his own famous Shire at home.

Severe Accident.
 [From Friday's Daily.]
 Mr. Patrick McNamara met with a severe accident this forenoon. As nearly as he is able to tell he was walking westward on the railway track about quarter way up section 16 somewhere between 10:30 and 11 o'clock, when he was struck by a train and thrown from the track. Two or three little children of Mrs. Tweedle who lives on Atlantic Avenue, saw the accident and running to see the man supposing he was dead, was spoken to by Mr. McNamara, who said he wanted to be taken to the house of John McNamara. One of the little girls noticing Mr. Ab. Stirrett driving along with a spring wagon called to him. A mattress and pillows were procured from Mrs. Tweedle's house and by the aid of Messrs. Fleming Earle and Wade, Mr. Stirrett placed the wounded man in the wagon and took him to his own little house corner of Stephen Avenue and Drinkwater Street. Dr. Lindsay was in immediate attendance. His brother John and his nephew from Leugheed, McCarthy & Beck's office were on hand at once and the poor fellow well cared for.
 His wounds are very severe, though the doctor hopes not fatal. He received a terrible scalp wound, laying the skull bare for a long piece; there is also a fearful gash on one side face and several ribs are broken from the back bone, and his right shoulder blade fractured. The doctor thinks there are no limbs fractured, but his internal injuries may prove very severe.
 The train which struck McNamara was a freight train, backing up to the Y at the west end of section 16. McNamara was walking westward on one side of the track and consequently was struck from behind, but on one side. The train was in charge of Conductor Crawford. One of the brakemen saw McNamara walking, and says he hollowed to him several times without any effect, which is easily accounted for through McNamara's deafness. The strange part of the business is that after seeing the man knocked down the train men did no stop, but went on, done their turning and came back to the station and reported about running against a man. They state that they saw the man get up and walk after he was struck. That part of it requires confirmation, however.
 Before the train hands took any care to see about the poor fellow, Good Samaritan hands had tenderly cared for him.

Mr. E. P. Langford, of Chatham, who recently made a trip through the Territories, is telling the people of his native town what he thinks of our live city. As it invariably does with every one who visits the town has made a good impression on Mr. Langford. A reporter of the Chatham Planet interviewed him upon his return home, and the following is the result: "Calgary commands our attention at once. This bustling town, five years old, has a population of 3,500, the electric light, fire hall, with steam engine and firemen. The principal streets are wide especially Stephen Avenue, on which street cars will no doubt soon be running. The principal churches are represented. The Church of England people have a fine building, the Methodists and Presbyterians likewise, while the Catholics have just laid the corner stone of a large edifice. Calgary supports a

with an efficient staff of masters, among whom the leader is Mr. Short, an esteemed ex-Chathamite. The fourth estate is represented by the Tribune and Herald, voicing the claims of the Grit and Tory persuasions. When asked by our reporter which was which, our informant said that he did not know, and when he put the question to one of the editors, the latter said, "We are all one so far as praise of this great and glorious country is concerned," and having read copies of both papers, it seems hard, if not impossible, to divide the touting off of party shades. In this connection our journals in Ontario, might take a patriotic leaf out of the Calgary book, and cease the proverbial "fouling of their own nest," in order to damage an opponent. Mr. Reilly, proprietor of the Royal Hotel, is one of the most pleasing and enterprising gentlemen Mr. Langford ever met, with courteous and attentive waiters and everything conducted in first class style from cellar to attic. He would advise any Chathamite or Kentite going over the ground travelled by himself, to sojourn at the Royal as he would there find his every want supplied. The situation of the town lying between the Bow and Elbow Rivers, and sloping uniformly towards both streams, and also westward, thus ensuring the most perfect natural drainage in any town visited by him.

A few personal items may come in here. To begin with the leading official, Mayor Marsh, is a very intelligent, agreeable, social man, and fully justifies the wise choice of his fellow citizens. He has a large general store, and a very fine private residence which would compare favorably with some handsome mansions on Victoria avenue in Chatham. There is quite a sprinkling of wealthy Englishmen in Calgary. Among these is Sir John Lister Kaye, who has his temporary office in a car where he also resides, on a C. P. R. siding. He has also an office in Calgary, and owns land on Stephen avenue, on which he proposes to erect a building to cost not less than $75,000, and for which plans and specifications are out. Mr. L. having had occasion to call on Sir John on business matters, found him courteous and gentlemanly in the extreme. Calgary ought to feel proud of having a man of Sir John's position and influence in its midst, and may feel assured that his exertions will not be lacking to advance the claims of the town and tributary country in England. Mr. L. informs us that he met Mr. A. McArthur, manager of the Gull Lake farm, containing 10,000 acres, owned by Sir John, in addition to nine others, of similar acreage. Mr. McArthur was enquiring after our respected fellow citizens, the Gray boys.

Calgary is a great distributing centre for Fort Macleod, Edmonton, Prince Albert, and other outlying districts and places, giving thus quite a prestige to the youthful city. It is a sight to behold the ox-carts from these distant places converging with one common object towards Calgary, and after filling up their loads, returning in Indian file along the trail, anxious to gladden the hearts of friends at home, eagerly expecting their return.

From Calgary we now take a drive out into the country and view its capabilities for the support of man and beast. Through the courtesy of Mr. Maw the agent for the celebrated Massey Co., and also for the Chatham Wagons, which enjoy a large sale round Calgary, Mr. L. was driven out, on the Macleod trail, a distance of 25 or 30 miles from Calgary, then across over the country by what is known as the Black Foot trail, leading along the Bow River to Calgary. On this route he had the pleasure of seeing some very thriving farms, with fine crops growing upon them, such as spring wheat, oats and peas, which from present appearance, bid fair to prove luxuriant crops. The grains held their weight well, as the following tabular statement shows:—

Wheat.....	64 65
Oats.....	48
Barley.....	54

The land adjacent to Calgary, is a rolling prairie, termed locally bench land, with flat river bottom along Bow and Elbow Rivers. The bench lands are supposed to be which does come, though rather as the exception than rule, at an untimely season. The portion lying south of Calgary is the best improved. The excursion referred to in the last letter, from Calgary to Banff, was, through the courtesy of Mr. Van-Horne, performed by daylight at the reduced price of $4 for the round trip. Great improvements have been made in the National Park, by the Government in the way of roads leading up to the hot springs and to the great cave. Mr. L. and daughter put up at the Centenarian Hotel, a very comfortable hostelry having bathrooms and water condensed from the hot springs reheated to any required temperature for guests.

Our contracting space warns us to wind up. In conclusion, Mr. L. would say: "Let anybody who is doing well in Kent by all means stay there, but tenants with small means, or any one who is heavily mortgaged should gather together their little remaining pile and pull stakes, and don't stop till they get to the Calgary district, where there is abundance of good land, at the disposal of the C. P. R., Hudson Bay, Northwest Land Co., and Government homestead, and where a settler will enjoy a magnificent climate and meet with hearty hospitalities from those already there before them."

Banff Springs to be Tested.

Mr. J. H. Sheffield, superintendent of the Canadian Pacific railway sleeping, dining and palace cars and hotels, states that a large number of Americans are visiting the Pacific province, and announces that during the stay of the Canada Medical association at Banff next month, tests are to be made of the springs there and their medical virtues classified.

New Refinery.

A new company has been formed in St. John's, N. B., for the purpose of manufacturing syrups, glucose etc., capital $250,000. How wicked the government must be and how stupid the policy that fosters such things in Canada. Why not let the United States get all the benefit of the capital and outlay of these industries, in the language of the acts of the anti-Canadian party in Canada. Away with such nonsense. Pile up your refineries gentlemen.

An Elegant Office.

Mr. George C. Marsh, the enterprising Real estate dealer and Insurance Agent moved into his new office in the new Alberta Hotel, corner of Stephen avenue and Scarth street yesterday. Very few gentlemen in the eastern cities of Canada engaged in Mr. Marsh's line of business, can beat his new office. Both he and the town may be proud of it.

The Cricketers Send-off.

A complimentary cricket match will be given by the N.W.M.P. Club to Mr. Prothero on Saturday, the 20th inst., at 1:30 p.m. sharp on the town club grounds. This complimentary will be given on account of Mr. Prothero leaving Calgary for Swift Current next Monday to reside. In this connection we might mention that the return match which was to have taken place on the 20th, will be indefinitely postponed on account of three prominent members of the N. W. M. P. club, Messrs. Gillespie, Currier and Hunt, being away at Banff.

Fun, Frolic, and Enjoyment.

The picnic of the Knox church Sabbath school, which was held Tuesday afternoon on the Van Courtland grounds, north of the Bow River, was most thoroughly enjoyed by the children and the fact that the children were so happy was accepted by the teachers and managers as full reward for the trouble and expense it took to get up the entertainment. The refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake etc. with out limit were furnished in the most profuse abundance by the ladies of the school and congregation. Innocent games of racing, jumping, etc., were indulged in by the boys, while the girls amused themselves by all kinds of plays suitable to their age and sex. Few of the children wanted any supper last night, one boy said that the cake came so thick and fast and in such variety that he was at a loss to know which to take first. A bright idea struck one lad and he divulged it to the pastor. Approaching the minister in a very confidential manner he said: "Mr. Herdman, I have a good plan in my head."

"Well what is it, my boy?" said the reverend gentleman.

"It is," said the boy, "to have a picnic like this every week."

Though it was cloudy and threatened rain all afternoon, it held up, and the cloudiness made the weather all the more enjoyable.

THE WEEK'S LOCAL NEWS

Wednesday.

Mr. Ed. Frayne, manager of Messrs. Y. C. Kiteley & Co's. branch establishment at Lethbridge, arrived in the city this morning.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Angus McNaughton who came so near being trampled to death by a horse on Monday, is recovering from the effects of his awful ordeal as rapidly as could possibly be expected.

Mr. S. Barber, manager of the Imperial Bank at Calgary, who has been confined to his room for a few days with a severe illness, we are pleased to note is on the mending tack, and was so much better as to be able to be up town yesterday afternoon.

Thursday.

Three cases of smallpox are reported in Westminster, B. C.

Prof. J. Martland, resident master of Upper Canada College, Toronto, arrived from the east last night and is registered at the Royal.

Miss Maggie Watson, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Knight, on Atlantic Avenue for about a week, returned to her home at Pine Creek on Tuesday evening.

Reliable reports show that 1,862 ounces of gold were mined in Nova Scotia during the month of May. If that province alone produces as much gold, how much does the whole Dominion produce, and why have we no mint in Canada?

Friday.

Mr. Henry LeJeune of the Banking firm of LeJeune & Smith, Regina, is in town, registered at the Royal Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander White and child of Guelph, have returned from the west, and are stopping at the Royal Hotel.

Dr. Gemmill of Almonte, Ont., the city celebrated for its famous "Rosemond Tweeds," is registered at the Royal Hotel.

Saturday.

Rev. Father Lacombe is the guest of Rev. Mr. Cherrier at the Immaculate Conception Church.—Northwest Review.

His Lordship Judge Rouleau has returned from Regina and will reopen the high court of justice on Monday the 22nd instant.

Lieut. Governor Royal thinks if the C. P. R. had run through Battleford that place would now have a population of 50,000.

We understand that Dr. George, late of St. Thomas' Hospital, London, England, is about settling in Calgary to practice as a physician and surgeon.

We have been favored with another delightful rain. It commenced to come down gently about 11 o'clock last night and continued through most of the night. Though the ground had not become by any means dry since the last plentiful rain, yet the drenching one will do good and be a still further guarantee of good crops.

George C. Marsh, the Calgary live real estate and insurance agent, since moving into his splendid new office in the "Alberta Hotel," has made a change in his life assurance business. He formerly ably represented the "Equitable" but after mature consideration he has espoused the "New York Life." No doubt Mr. Marsh will tell the public through the press all about it soon.

Several farmers in the vicinity of Carman, Manitoba, have not heeded the order of the Dominion Government not to commence haying before the 20th of July, and have already cut a considerable quantity. An agent for the government left on Saturday for Carman and will confiscate and sell the hay that has been cut, and will probably prosecute the farmers in question.

There was a fire alarm sounded at the fire bell about 7 p. m. yesterday, fortunately there was no need of the alarm. Mr. Maloney, whose house is in the residence portion of the town, north of the post office, had raked up some grass and rubbish and set fire to it. Some one got frightened, thinking his barn was on fire. There was a lively rustling for a few minutes, but the fire fiend was fooled out of his prey for once.

A saddle with a history turned up in the Calgary police court yesterday. This saddle was purchased some two years ago by Mr. Critchley from Mr. Barwise. Mr. Critchley left his horse tied on Atlantic Avenue with the saddle on it. While he was attending to business, the saddle was stolen. We believe all trace of it was lost till very lately. It was discovered in a livery stable in town, having been brought there it is said on a horse. Information was laid with the Chief of Police and the saddle taken possession of by him. The case is having a hearing in court today.

It is known to most of the people of this district that Hey. Mr. Time, who has been a zealous Christian worker amongst the Indians for about six years, was compelled under the advice of his physician, to take three months rest. He was not suffering from any particular malady, but from long over work. We are sorry to learn from Mr. S. J. Stocken that the Rev. gentleman who went to England is not sufficiently recovered to come back, but will have to remain three months more in his native country for rest and recuperation.

We are having warm nights now, which is not a very unusual thing in Alberta. There have already been as many warm nights this month as it is usual to have in a whole summer. This is not without its good effect. Rain having been rather later than usual in coming this spring, crops did not come forward as rapidly at first as in other years. But with plentiful rains during the past few weeks and constant heat night and day, everything is growing very fast, and we are assured of excellent anharvest.

Mr. John T. Cable who was brought from Winnipeg a short time ago by the N.W.M.P., charged with horse stealing on a big scale, we understand has been released and is again a free man, not even having been committed for trial at the high court. It is reported that the parties who were very profuse in their statements about his guilt before he was arrested, fized out when they were put on oath. There is a limp place in the law that allows a man to be arrested on verbal statements and does not punish a man when he goes back on his statements. According to British law a man is held to be innocent till proven guilty.

The Dominion Illustrated for July 6 is the opening number for a new year. This fine pictorial journal has won deserved popularity, and we bespeak for it the continued and enlarged support of the Canadian public. There is so much in the resource, scenery and life of the Dominion, which can be effectively depicted only by the aid of illustration, that our people should deem it a privilege to further the enterprise. One of the leading features in the number for July 6 is the illustration of the milling business of Canada, with special reference to the great establishment of A. W. Ogilvie & Co. The number for July 13 contains views of British Columbia and Alaska, and a portrait of the Hon. Senator Murphy. The Dominion Illustrated is published by the Dominion Illustrated Publishing Company, of which Mr. C. E. Desbarats is manager.

A strong contrast was presented yesterday between two things which are seen every day without exciting particular attention. Mr. Hannington who bought out Mr. Kerr, the dairyman, was going his rounds as usual making the children's hearts glad by the ringing of his merry milk bell. The pony with a commendable determination that his new master should not be distanced by any of his rivals, in getting milk delivered in time to make custard for tea, started off at a rather high rate of speed. But the "best concerted plans of men and mice" ran afield, so in this case, the milk wagon struck on something which upset it, pitched Mr. Hannington out, overturned the cans of milk, dragging the gentleman on the ground scratching and blackening his face, while the milk whitened the earth, thus making a change in colors and a strong contrast.

A grand wheelbarrow tournament took place on Earth street yesterday. A horse had been tied to a barrow somewhere about Dr. Lafferty's office. The horse evidently thought he might as well have a little fun to himself while the boss was getting his prescription, so he started off on the run. What made it a little awkward for the horse was that the barrow was attached to the horse's bridle instead of traces, as it should have been, however nothing daunted, he dashed along leaving fragments of the barrow scattered on the prairie till he passed where the men are at work on the new Methodist Church, by this time he had only one handle of the barrow in tow, but on he dashed towards the House, whether inspired to go there through publicity given the place through late police trials or whether it was because it was "Hobson's choice" with him, go there or nowhere, it being the only house on Section 15 west of the new church site "deponent saith not."

Monday.

Major Walker went up to his Kananaskis mills this morning.

Miss Donna Hungerford, of Watford, Ont., is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Dr. Lindsay.

Frank Tyrrell, barrister of Morrisburg, who defended Fisk at the last court, is here on his return trip from the Coast.

Mr. Maloney was charged before George Murdoch, J. P., Saturday, with improperly burning straw in his yard. He said he was not aware that it was contrary to the by-law and did not wish to do any harm. He was not fined but advised to be more careful in the future.

Walter Deane, who was arrested by Constable Barker for attempting to steal a ride on the C. P. R., was up before Geo. Murdoch, and accorded the privilege of walking next time. He was granted the freedom of the Northwest on condition of leaving town.

There arrived on Saturday three Icelandic families in Calgary. Two of them are direct from Dakota and one from Iceland. Those people have come here on the representation of their friends who settled north of Calgary last year, and are so highly pleased with their new home that they want their friends to enjoy this fine country. The Dakota contingent brings some means with them.

A paragraph which appeared in the columns of the "News-Advertiser" taken from an Eau Claire, Wis., exchange the other day, in reference to the sale of the "Anthracite mine," has two mistakes. First the price at which it is being negotiated is put down at $140,000. It should be $1,400,000. It speaks of the mine as being in British Columbia whereas it is in Alberta.

A "cilled dove" from the west end was found during the night serenading one of the livery stables with her beguiling whispers. The police thought it not at all becoming to be seeking shelter in a livery stable, so she was put under the hospitable roof of the old city hall. She had her name entered on the visitors' register as Miss Jane Smith. The police say her weekday name is Laura Ballard. Her case will be presented to Geo. Murdoch, J. P., to-day for his consideration. It might be mentioned that she only remained as guest of the city for about an hour, when a male acquaintance put up the necessary wealth to release her and took her home forthwith.

Tuesday.

In the High Court of Justice De Ballanhard, charged with horse stealing, got six months sentence this afternoon.

In the case of the woman brought up yesterday morning for street walking Sunday night, she was fined $5 and costs by Geo. Murdoch, J. P.

The saddle case of which we gave some particulars on Saturday, was closed at the police court yesterday. Mr. Critchley got his long lost saddle, but did not press the case further.

Sir John Lister Kaye's cow-boys have been distributing the cattle purchased by him from the Powder River Co. last fall. Three hundred and fifty will be placed on each farm.

The fertile Northwest rivals the Sahara in mirages. The town of Medicine Hat has repeatedly been seen from Grassy Lake, fifty-five miles distant, and occasionally the people of Lethbridge get a glimpse of Dunmore, which is one hundred and nine miles away.

A special meeting of the Alberta Stock Growers' Association is to be held on Saturday next, to consult with Dr. McEachern, Dominion Veterinary Inspector, on the subject of anthrax, and to discuss the advisability of appointing stock inspectors at the points on the C. P. R. from which cattle are shipped.

Gopher's tails, for which a bounty is being paid in many rural municipalities in Manitoba, are becoming a legal tender in some parts of the country. It is said store-keepers in some districts have been accepting gopher tails in payment for goods.

It is stated, says the Qu'Appelle Viddette, that owing to the number of tricolor flags on the Roman Catholic Church and some of the neighboring houses at Prince Albert, on the occasion of Lieutenant-Governor Royal's visit to that place, a stranger might easily have imagined himself in France instead of a British colony.

Quite a number of the Ontario school teachers who are on an excursion from that province to the west, stopped over at Calgary yesterday. A few of them resumed their journey westward this morning. None of the party left the train after they passed Brandon till they reached Calgary. The fare for the round trip from Ontario points to Vancouver and return is $80.00, with stop over privileges. The C. P. R. have evidently made up their minds that this good country need no longer be a term inog. The fine cheap excursion trips given this season will repay them many fold in the future.

The late Hon. T. B. Pardee whose death was announced in our telegrams yesterday at Sarnia was one of the leading lawyers of Lambton Co., and was well known throughout western Ontario. He was Minister of Crown Lands in Mr. Mowat's Government from its organization till his health failed. The Hon. gentleman has been in declining health for the last two years, his death was by no means unexpected. While a man of firm character, he was unobtrusive and gentlemanly in his bearing. In his department of the government he was painstaking and obliging to all. In the House he did not usually take part in the debates except when something in connection with his department was under the consideration of the Assembly, but when he did speak he always made things plain.

A Dakota newspaper prints the following unique advertisement: "If John Jones, who, twenty years ago, deserted his poor wife and babe, will return, said babe will lick the stuffin' out of him."

Our Mines.

Slowly, but surely, the vast resources of the Rocky Mountains are being developed. Saturday evening a carload of machinery passed through Calgary on the Canadian Pacific for the Kootenay Smelting company. This machinery was manufactured by the Hendy & Meyer, Engineering Co., of Denver, Colorado. Of course the machinery must be got somewhere at present, but it should be made right here, and if English or Canadian manufacturers won't take hold Americans will. Calgary will be the Denver of the Canadian West. It has all the resources of Denver and many advantages that Denver has not. Henry Villiard said to the writer on the 16th of June, "It strikes me that Calgary will be the Denver of Canada."

BORN.

Thomson.—At St. Olaf's Cottage, Calgary, on the 19th of July, 1880. The wife of James Thomson Esq., manager of the Hudson Bay Co's post at Calgary, of a son.

DIED.

McNamara.—At his residence, corner of Stephen Avenue and Drinkwater Street, Calgary, at 2 o'clock on the morning of Saturday, July 20th, Patrick McNamara, aged 45 years. The funeral will take place from his late residence on Sunday afternoon, the 21st inst., at 3 p. m. to St. Mary's Church, and from thence to the Roman Catholic Mission Cemetery.
